Senate Session—Personal Explanation by Senator Ross Concerning His Interview With President Grant—Last Batch of Nominations Sent In—Indian Superintendents—Notice to National Banks—The Jews in Palestine.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 20, 1869.

SENATE SESSION.

Immediately after the reading of the journal, Mr. Ross took the floor and read a long personal explanation, characterizing the account of his interview with the President as a gross exaggeration, but denouncing the President's removal of men from office merely because they were appointed by Mr. Johnson. He also went in to a vindication of his course during the past year and said his future support of the Administration should not be blind nor subservient.

The Senate took up Mr. Edmunds' resolution, fixing the time of adjournment sine die on Thursday at four o'clock.

A debate ensued, in which Messrs. Sumner and Pomeroy thought they could not get through the business by that time, and Messrs. Edmunds and Morrill expressed their views to the contrary.

The resolution passed with the modification of omitting the hour.

The Senate went into executive session and subsequently adjourned.

WHAT SENATOR ROSS SAID.

Senator Ross, in his speech in the Senate to-day, said the statements of his interview with the President were grossly incorrect and slanderous, and had been prompted by parties interested in manufacturing public opinion against him, who were witnesses to the interview. In simple justice to the President, he felt it his duty to say that on the occasion referred to no word inconsistent with the strictest rules of propriety and decorum were uttered by either parties to the interview. The interview was sought by him, not for the purpose of importuning the President to appoint this or that man. He had never yet approached him for that purpose, and had no design at present of doing so. His object was to protest against the sweeping removals of Radical Republicans in his State. During the interview he was astonished and pained to hear from the President the assertion, that where any man had held office during the last year and ahalf, it was presumptive evidence that he was a Johnson man. He proceeded at length to criticise the removals and appointments that had been made in his state. A portion of the delegation had demanded, and the President had conceded, the summary dismissal of Republican office holders on mere charges of want of fealty to the Republican party, which charges the men making them knew, in many instances, to be false and slanderous. He charged that of the new appointments scarcely one had been taken from the soldiers who fought against the rebellion, but in their stead men had been appointed who were skulkers in time of danger and notoriously unfit for any public charge.

Mr. Pomeroy briefly replied to his colleage, saying he was well satisfied with the President and his Administration. He saw nothing to complain of and nothing to censure. He argued that the changes were demanded and would be sanctioned by the people of Kansas.

NOMINATIONS SENT IN.

The President to-day sent the following nominations to the Senate:

THE LAST BATCH.

The President to-day sent to the Senate the last batch of nominations for the present Executive session. He will present a few more names in place of nominees who may be rejected, or withdrawn by himself. About two hundred nominations remain to be acted upon.

The Senate to-day considered the San Juan treaty, but reached no conclusion on the subject.

TO NATIONAL BANKS.

The Comptroller of Currency has sent the following to all the national banks:

In accordance with the provisions of an act of Congress, entitled an act regulating the reports of national banking associations, approved March 3d, 1869, you are hereby notified and required to forward immediately to this office, on the latest form of blank furnished for that purpose, a report of the condition of your bank as shown by its books at the close of business on the 17th day of April, 1869.

EXECUTIVE MANSION.

There was a very large crowd of visitors at the Executive Mansion this morning, the doors of the President's office being open until twelve o'clock. Those present availed themselves of the opportunity of obtaining interviews. Among those who had personal interviews were Senators Cattell, Hamlin, Cole, Drake, Morton, Thayer, Schurz, Cragin, Wilson, Fenton, Nye and Boreman. Robert Lincoln also paid his respects to the President.

The Cabinet met at noon. All present except Secretary Borie.

ISRAELITES IN PALESTINE.

Rabbi Sneersohn, in an interview with the President to-day, asked him to turn his attention to the deplorable condition of the Israelites in Palestine, who possess no civil or political rights whatever, and are deprived of the protection by representatives of civilized nations which the Christians enjoy, and praying him to enable them in the hour of need to seek refuge under the stars and stripes. President Grant replied briefly, but courteously, promising to examine into the matter, and do what he could to remedy any grievances which existed.

CLERKS DISCHARGED.

About one hundred clerks so far have been discharged from the Third Auditor's office and forty new appointments made, two of whom are colored men. One is Robert R. Douglass, son of Frederick Douglass, and the other is James E. O'Hare, who was clerk in the North Carolina Constitutional Convention.

INDIAN SUPERINTENDENTS.

The probability is that the Northern Superintendent of Indian Affairs will be selected from the Friends or Quakers of Philadelphia, the Central Superintendent from those of Indiana, and the Southern Superintendent from the same religious society of Baltimore.

Republican State Convention—Supreme Court Judges—Damage by Storm.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, April 20.—The Republican State Convention, called to nominate candidates for Supreme Judges, assembled here to-day. The three divisions of the State were represented, but not fully. George Andrews, of East Tennessee, Wm. McClain, of Middle Tennessee, and Olvin Hawkins, of West Tennessee, were nominated. It was thought that the present bench would be nominated, but Judge Andrews was the only one nominated. Hawkins, nominated in place of Smith, was formerly a member of the Court. Judge Shackleford announces his determination to run, notwithstanding the action of the Convention.

The storm last night did great damage to houses, fences, forests, &c., south and southeast of this city. The roofs of houses were taken off, walls blown down, fences and trees prosirated. The telegraph suffered considerably. The storm extended as far as Chattanooga.

CUBA.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

HAVANA, April 20.—The Diario announces that the insurgents are closely besieging Trinidad, and have cut off all communication with the town on the land side. Troops have been dispatched from Cienfuegos to relieve Trinidad. The same paper reports that one thousand insurgents were attacked and defeated by one hundred and fifty volunteers.

Reports continue to be received of the burning of plantations by the rebels. The Abaili estate, near Matanzas, is among those recently destroyed.

It is rumored that a steamer from Nassau has landed a cargo of arms and ammunition for the rebels at Puerto Sarnia, on the northern coast of the Eastern Department.

Terrific Storm at Indianapolis—Loss of Life.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

INDIANAPOLIS, April 20.—About nine o'clock last night a terrific rain and hail storm, accompanied by wind and lightning, passed over this city. The Indiana Central Railroad freight depot was blown down, and a number of other buildings unroofed. The watchman of the Central depot, Allen McCutcheon, was killed, and several other employes seriously injured.

Rev. Samuel Ballou, Universalist Minister, of Utica, New York, who was passing the depot at the time of the accident, took shelter in the depot, and was very seriously if not fatally injured. The telegraph lines, in the city, were all prostrated, but most of them have been repaired and communication resumed.

The injuries of Rev. D. Ballou are not so serious as at first supposed, and it is now thought he will recover.

The Illinois Legislature.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, April 20.—The Illinois Senate met at Springfield this morning, in pursuance of adjournment, and after confirming the Commissioners appointed by the Governor on Saturday to locate the Northern Illinois Hospital for the Insane, refusing to confirm the Commissioners to locate the Southern Illinois Penitentiary, passing several bills over the Governor's veto, passing complimentary resolutions to the Speaker, and listening to a speech in reply from him, adjourned sine die.

The House met at the same hour, but a quorum not being present no business was done, save passing complimentary resolutions to the Clerks.

BALTIMORE.

The Case of Kimberly vs. B. F. Butler.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

BALTIMORE, April 20.—In the case of Kimberly against Butler, in the United States Court to-day, Chief Justice Chase presiding, the same questions were at issue as before the Superior Court of Baltimore city, namely, the freedom from arrest of a member of Congress, and whether a writ in a civil suit amounts to an arrest. This point this morning was argued on demurrer to the plea in abatement. At the conclusion of the argument the Court reserved its decision until to-morrow morning, but intimated the case could go on. A plea of limitation, under an act of Congress of 1863, that the cause of action had not accrued within two years before the suit was brought, was next demurred to by plaintiffs, and after argument the demurrer was overruled. The plaintiffs then filed a special replication that the cause of action was not within the description of cases mentioned in the act of Congress. Defendants demurred to this replication. General Butler opened the argument on the demurrer, and was replied to by Mr. Addison. The Court adjourned until to-morrow morning.

Federal Appointments in San Francisco.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—The proposed change of officials of the branch mint in this city creates indignation in the business community. Nearly all the principal bankers and business men unite in telegraphing to Washington, protesting against the removal of the present efficient officers. The change involves a suspension of the mint operations for several weeks, and will have a damaging effect on financial transactions generally. The nomination of D. W. Cheesman, as Sub-Treasurer, is regarded unfavorably. A long protest has been telegraphed to Washington urging his rejection by the Senate.

The Storm at Louisville.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, April 20.—The storm last night was very severe, being accompanied by lightning and volumes of rain. Several trestles along the lines of railroads leading south of this city were partly washed away. A train of four freight cars was wrecked near Paris, Tenn., but no loss of life occurred. The damage will be immediately repaired. In this city the damage, if any occurred, is very slight.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Hotel Robbery—The Robber Captured.

Monday night or yesterday morning, a robbery was perpetrated at the St. Clair Hotel, under circumstances which led to the conclusion that the perpetrator was a guest at the establishment, and prompt measures were taken to secure his arrest, which we are pleased to state, proved successful. It appears that the room of the bar keeper at the hotel, Mark Durkin, was entered by the aid of a pair of "outsiders," the door having been locked from the inside and the key left in the lock, and a silver watch worth forty dollars, a pair of gold sleeve buttons, a one-dollar bill and two fifty cent notes of fractional currency taken. Room No. 61, which was occupied by Madame Ida Idalie and her daughter, a danseuse, who arrived in the city Saturday, was also entered in the same way, and a platina watch worth one hundred dollars, a gold locket and chain worth sixty dollars, and a pair of ear-rings made of two dollar and a half gold pieces abstracted. This room had likewise been locked on the inside and the key left in the lock, and upon examining the keys yesterday morning the marks of the "outsiders" were plainly visible upon them. Another boarder in the hotel, at an early hour yesterday morning, heard some one working at his door, and after getting his revolver he opened the door and saw a man pass down the hall hastily and enter a room which was occupied by William Howard, a stranger in the city, who had been stopping at the hotel for three or four days. Chief of Police Hague was notified of the affair, and after hearing the facts, accompanied by several members of the detective force, proceeded to the hotel, and on ascertaining the room occupied by Howard, repaired to the door and knocked. Howard asked what they wanted, when they demanded admittance. He did not open the door immediately, but kept them waiting for twenty or thirty minutes, during which time they heard the window at the back of his room open and close, after which the door was opened. Howard was the only person found in the room. He was searched but none of the stolen property, save the two dollars taken from the barkeeper's room, was found in his possession. A pair of "ousiders" were found over the window in the room, where, it is evident, they had been placed by Howard. The room was then searched, but none of the stolen property discovered. The window was hoisted, and, lying on the roof of an adjoining building, which was but a few feet from the windows, were the watches and other articles we have already described.

Howard was then conducted to the Mayor's office, where Chief Hague made two informations against him, charging him with robbery, and after a hearing he was committed to jail in default of $1,000 bail in each case for his appearance at court.

Howard, it appears, is from Chicago, and he states that this is his first visit to this city. The prospect for an extended one is quite flattering.

Trouble Among Allegheny Firemen—Friendship Fire Company—Its Disbandment—Part of Apparatus Seized—Probability of a Reorganization.

In Monday morning's issue we stated some trouble had arisen among the members of the Friendship Hose Company of Allegheny, which would likely lead to the disbanding of the organization. Subsequently the matter was brought up at a meeting of the Committee on Fire Engines and Hose, of the City Councils, at which it was stated the Company was completely demoralized, and could not be relied upon for service hereafter. The Committee accordingly instructed Captain Crow, of the Allegheny police force, to proceed to the engine house, and take possession of the same. Captain Crow proceeded to follow out his instructions, but when he arrived at the Engine House on Beaver street he found it deserted, the members having, it seems, received notice of his coming, and having abandoned the place, taking with them the new hose carriage won at the Monumental Fair, together with the greater portion of the equipments of the company, leaving nothing but the old hose carriage, the horse and the hose. This occurred late on Monday night.

Yesterday an attempt was made to reorganize the company, but without avail. It seems the parties leaving have threatened dire vengeance upon any persons taking possession of the house as a fire company, which threats have had their influence upon those endeavoring to effect a reorganization. It is said the whole trouble originated, and has thus far been kept up by a very small minority of the members, about nine out of sixty. Some of these nine, however, have heretofore been among the most active members. They claim the property taken away as theirs', they having secured the money by which it was procured. The Committee, contend, on the other hand, that as the money was contributed by the citizens of the ward, the properly certainly belongs to the City Fire Department. It is quite probable, however, that no legal trouble will ensue on this point, as there is sufficient apparatus for an organized Company to go immediately into service. That carried off was more for ornament than use. When last heard from, the fancy hose carriage taken, was on the Perrysville Plank Road, about sixteen miles from the city, in charge of the two bolters who had attached a horse to it and were still driving ahead. It is probable the whole matter will be held in abeyance until the next meeting of Councils, when definite action will be taken.

A Serenade.

Last evening a party of young men assembled on Second street, Allegheny, in front of a house occupied by a friend who had just entered into hymenia bonds for the purpose of serenading him. Their instruments of music consisted of tin horns, cow bells and tin pans, which, when operated upon, at once produced a sound startling in the highest degree to the entire neighborhood. The nerves of a policeman on that beat being shattered with the music, he, in a frenzy of nervous excitement, seized upon two of the serenaders and conveyed them to the Mayor's office, when a fine of three dollars was imposed upon each for disturbing the public peace. This ended the serenade.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THE FAIR TAMBOURINIST.

With feet half naked and bare,
And dress half tattered and torn,
With a penny here and a mockery there,
And floods of derision and scorn,
She wanders the street wherever her feet,
Weary or willing are borne;
With an eye as bright and a cheek as fair
As the earliest blush of the morn.

Wandering up and down
And driven from door to door,
A jest for every idle clown
And a butt for every boor.
While the velvet-slippered, in satin and lace,
Go rustling by her side,
With a frozen heart and curtained face,
And a lip curled into pride!

So beautiful, yet so frail,
So willing, yet so weak!
Oh, what if the heart should fail,
And a heavenly purpose break,
And the dens and kennels of vice
Another poor victim hold?
A celestial spark be quenched in the dark
And an angel ice bartered for gold?

No wonder the heart should fail,
And a heavenly purpose fade,
The eye grow dim and the cheek grow pale,
When none stand ready to aid!
No wonder the lairs and cradles of sin
So many poor victims should hold,
While the good are content to worship their God,
And the rich to worship their gold.

Move patiently on, O earth,
Till mercy's wandering dove
Shall fly to the roay realm of its birth,
And rest in the bosom of love:
Move patiently on till the crucified
Shall gather His radiant crown
From the lowly flowers and bleeding hearts
That the world has trampled down!

As this occurred on Spruce street near Twentieth, the very respectable inhabitants of that region had a pleasant Sunday afternoon divertisement.

A PARIS correspondent describes a fashionable lady after her dinner toilet: The marquise is blonde; she is powdered with iris, and not enough to make her tresses white, but hazy. A diadem of variegated tulips bend their flexible stems above her forehead; a train of yellow satin under a white satin Alengon panier adds considerable height to her stature. The panier is looped with tulips; the yellow satin shoes have lace rosettes on the instep. A Florentine necklace of enamel medallions encircles the throat. The ear rings are medallions suspended on chains to match. The fan is of white lace mounted on perforated mother of pearl. The opera cloak is white lace over yellow satin lining, with very wide, open magician sleeves and white lace hood. It is trimmed all round with swan's down.

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY REPUBLIC,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, 411 F ST.,
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12, 1869.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 21.—1. The 30th day of May proximo—a day set apart by the Grand Army of the Republic to commemorate the glorious deeds of our departed comrades—will be observed throughout the United States in such manner as befits the solemnities of the occasion, and as will testify the undying love of a grateful people for the memory of those who died that the nation might live. This is the second public observance of the occasion, which it is trusted will recur yearly while there remains a heart loyal to the cause in which our comrades fell, and while the moving principle of that struggle is worth preserving. If our organization hnd no other object, that alone of keeping green the resting places of our nation's defenders, by this annual commemoration, would be motive enough to hold us together in a fraternal band. The Commander-in-Chief desires to thank those patrintic men and women who gave their aid and sympathy on a former occasion to make successful this National Memorial Day, and they are cordially invited to unite with the comrades of the Grand Army in the approaching ceremonies; and he thanks the loyal press everywhere, through whose generous aid a lasting record has been made of the observances one year ago. To the Congress of the United States, the comrades are especially indebted for authorizing the publication, in book form, of the proceedings of last May, and for the promise held out that each year a compilation will be made and published as a national recognition of sympathy with these memorial observations.

II. It has been determined not to prescribe any form of ceremony for universal observance, but each Post, or any number of Posts, may arrange together such fitting services as circumstances will permit. Department Commanders will use every effort to perfect arrangements for the occasion, The newspaper Press are requested to give publication to this order.

III. Department and Post Commanders are specially enjoined to preserve and forward to these headquarters a copy of the proceedings (in printed form so far as possible) which take place in carrying out this order.

IV. As the 30th of May occurs on the Sabbath, Posts are at liberty to observe that day, or Saturday, the 29th.

By order of JOHN A. LOGAN,
Commander-in-Chief.

SPRING GUNS.—Considerable excitement has been occasioned at Johnsburg, Warren county, Pa., by the killing of a notorious character named Charles Pasco, alias, Charles Dick, on the premises of a respectable farmer named Bahrer. The facts are substantially as follows: For a long time past Mr. Bahrer has suffered severely from the frequent visits of a gang of burglars. His grain cribs had frequently been emptied, his fowls taken, and his farming impliments destroyed. He frequently kept watch about his premises, but never succeeded in capturing the culprits. As a final resort, he procured a spring gun, which he mounted in his barn, loaded. He warned all comers by a notice on the barn of the presence of the gun, and for a number of days he missed nothing. Some time on Sunday evening or Monday morning last, Pasco visited the premises for plunder, and endeavored to effect an entrance by tearing away a board. The gun went off, and the contents lodged in Pasco's heart killing him instantly.

THE new English college for women is increasing yearly. But it seems that a large per centage of the girls who go in for the senior local examination at Cambridge are rejected, on the basis of a test originally planned for boys. And the point of failure is worth marking. The girls fall behind, not in Latin nor Greek, nor Euclid, but for incompetency in such elementary subjects as grammar and arithmetic, history and geography. As year after year brings in girls to the senior examination from other schools, this defective elementary training is more and more apparent. This hint may well be pondered among us. For while American girls' schools have been, generally, more broad and solid in these foundation matters than the English, there is of late an increasing tendency to the more showy and ornamental "branches" at too early an age.

A WRITER in the London Spectator propounds a new theory in reference to the well authenticated cases in which persons at the moment of death have made their presence seen or felt by distant friends. He suggests that the brain has the power of producing waves or vibrations in an atmosphere peculiar to itself, just as a magnetic battery sends an undulation through the magnetic fluid contained in a telegraph wire, or a bell sets the air surrounding it in motion when it is rung. At the moment of death, particularly of death by some sudden violence which finds the body in full vigor, the brain, exerting itself with a spasmodic intensity, causes those brains which are connected with it by affinity to feel its power and thus to perceive the presence of the person to whom it belongs.

THE frontiers of Russia and Prussia, from Citovian as far as Memel, are at present a prey to a horrible famine, the entire population, but especially the Jews, being decimated by hunger and typhus fever. In the first named town a house is shown which was inhabited by six families, but which is now empty, all the inmates having perished. A poor woman had lost her husband and thirteen children; one still remained; then he died, like the rest. Just after he had expired the mother exclaimed: "He is happy; he has nothing to fear or to suffer like ourselves." A subscription has been opened, and aid is received by M. Julien Hirsch, cashier of the house of that name at Memel.

JOSH BILLINGS welcomes spring thusly: Spring came this year as usual, hail butuous virgin, 5,000 years old and upwards, hale and hearty old gal, welcum tew New York State and parts adjacent. Now the birds jaw, now the cattle holler, now the pigs scream, now the geese warble, now the cats sigh, and natur is frisky; the virtuous bed-bug and the nobby cockroach are singing Yankee Doodle, 'cuming thru the rhi.' Now may be seen the musketer, that gray outlined critter ov destiny, solitary and alone, examining his last year's bill, and now may be heard, with the naked ear, the hoarse shanghigh bawling in the barnyard.

IT IS now the custom in Parisian cemetaries to engrave the dying words of the interred on the tombstones. "Oh, mamma!" is the general exclamation with children, and "Oh, God!" with adults.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P.M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about stationary last evening with scant nine feet by the Monongahela marks, and ten feet by those of the Allegheny.

The weather continues cloudy and close with frequent showers of rain. Mercury at 4 P. M. 77.

There has been no arrivals since the date of our last report. The Lawrence from St. Louis and Glasgow from Dubuque, are among the first boats due.

The departures include the St. Marys for Cincinnati, and new tow-boat Ironsides for St. Louis. The latter boat had a tow of nine barges.

The Grey Eagle, Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving at noon.

Capt. M. W. Beltzhoover went out in command of the Ironsides, which is the first active steamboating he has done for some time. As we noted the other day, the Ironsides, is in all respects, one of the finest tow boats built here for many a day.

The new steamer Australia, Capt. Dan Moore, takes her departure for New Orleans this evening without fail. Passengers and shippers can rely on this boat going through.

The Bellevernon, Capt. J. J. Darragh, Jr, is up for St. Louis and St. Paul forthwith. She is in all respects an excellent craft, while in regard to speed, she is hard to beat,

The R. C. Gray, Capt. Whittaker, is filling up steadily for Cincinnati and Louisville, and will be the first boat out. Messrs. Blood and Carpenter are associated together in the office.

The high-headed Glendale, Capt. J. M. Hare, with Capt. J. Mellon in the office, is announced for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi forthwith. The Glendale is one of the best boats in the trade and offers superior inducements to passengers.

—The towboat Alps is reported at Golconda Island in a disabled condition.

—The Glasgow was to have left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday, and probably, the Lorena.

—Captain Richardson is soliciting the merchants of Vicksburg to take stock to build a new boat for the Vicksburg and Natchez trade.

—The Llewellyn, from Evansville to Eastport, broke her shaft near Cave-in Rock, on Friday morning, and was towed to Paducah by the Painter.

—The Andrew Ackley and Peninah, for Ft. Benton, arrived at St. Joe on the 15th. The Ackley added 700 sacks of flour to her cargo for Benton.

—Physicians pronounce the recovery of Jerry Coats doubtful. It will be remembered he lost his leg recently, while employed as mate of the Mollie Able.

—The Maggie Hays, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed Cincinnati on Saturday, with 750 tons and 75 passengers. The Armadillo passed by there on Sunday, with 550 tons.

—The Jackson Standard says: On Friday last five flatboats, containing in all 215 tuns pig iron, left Keyston Furnace for the Ohio river. Who will say that Raccoon is not a river.

—Captain A. Q. Ross advertises that he has important information for persons having claims against the Government for steamboats or barges taken possession of by the Government during the war within the jurisdiction of the insurrectionary States.

—The Sam. Orr, bound from Tennessee river to Evansville, broke her shaft at the foot of Cumberland Island Wednesday night. This is the eighth time Captain Duncan has met with similar accidents on various boats. The Wild Cat towed the Sam. Orr to Evansvills, where her broken shaft was shipped on the Charmer for Louisville.

—The new bridge across the Des Moines River, at Des Moines City, is completed and being used by passenger and freight trains. The structure is 543 feet in length consisting of 4 spans, each of equal length, and is considered by those competent to judge as being as good a specimen of wooden bridging as the country any where affords.

—The Nashville Republican of Saturday says: The Kate Putnam, for Pittsburgh direct, one of the best boats ever in the Cumberland, with a Captain both "gallant and true," and a gentlemanly set of clerks, was unavoidably detained over last night. She sails to day at noon and we rejoice to see her cabins crowded with passengers and her books full with shipments.

—The United States Local Inspecters at Louisville, on the 16th, revoked the license of Michael Roach as first engineer of river steamers, for negligence and incompetency in the duties of his profession, to wit: Running the steamer LeClaire No. 2 on several voyages with full knowledge of the fact that the main safety-valve of said LeClaire's boilers was fastened down and constructed in a dangerous manner.

A JUST RECOGNITION.

The Republicans of Allegheny, yesterday, pronounced their judgment upon the official fidelity of their late Senator, Hon RUSSELL ERRETT. When his old constituents thus sustain his course, that gentleman may complacently endure the harmless criticisms which, if intelligently translated, would confirm this judgment of our people.

THE Executive Session of the Senate will adjourn on Friday or Saturday next.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer thinks that the Democratic party errs in its slowness to elevate to position, or to recognize as worthy members of its organization, converts from Republicanism. By all means, reward those who desert principles for office and profit, for none other are found going over to that side of the house.

WHEN the Lisbon mission was first offered to Judge SHELLABARGER, of Ohio, he is reported to have declined it. But it was pressed upon him, and the nomination now before the Senate implies his final acceptance. The Judge is one of the most capable and statesmanlike among the prominent Republicans of Ohio.

THERE are fair prospects for the rejection by the Senate, of the nominations of CARLISLE, for Sweden, of SANFORD, for Spain, and of JONES, for Belgium. CARLISLE'S name has been already laid on the table by the general consent of Republican Senators. This smothers him, and vastly to the relief of our West Virginia friends.

OF THE one thousand nominations made by the present Administration, thirty-seven are diplomatic, ninety-nine are consular, fifteen are territorial, two hundred and sixteen are in the Internal Revenue Department, three hundred and ninety-two are postmasters, sixty-five are Judges, Marshals and Attorneys, and fifty-nine in the Land Offices. About three hundred additional changes will be made during the Summer.

THE declination of J. R. CLAY, the colored man, to accept the mission to Liberia, affords considerable fun to Democratic journalists. The Cincinnati Enquirer accounts for his conduct by saying that "the natives of that country have recently recurred to an old habit of theirs—that of eating each other; and the shrewd CLAY evidently fears that he might lie heavy on the stomachs of his cannibal brethren." That is good; but wouldn't it be well to favor a white Democrat with the position, for members of that party can lie conveniently anywhere; they are so used to it, you know?

SECRETARY FISH yesterday refused to go into the merits of a case from Western Pennsylvania, where not a county giving a Republican majority last fall had a single mission or consul. He replied to the member who plead for his people's rights, "I have spent five weeks in arranging these places, and I am not going to open up the subject again. Every one nominated has some friends who want them appointed, and unless they are rejected they will not be changed or new cases considered. Now as very few have been chosen on the judgment of the Senators or members, the probability of failure in every case where there is any reasonable pretense, is very good."—Washington Dispatch.

The Secretary's objection seems more applicable to cases where a given locality has already been favored with a specific selection, than to the case, as put by the faithful member, of a large district which, having contributed nearly thirty thousand to the Administration majorities, has not been honored by the recognition of a single name. The Secretary's protest against the revision of an erroneous judgment is not a justification for an absolute failure of all justice whatever.

We are assured, however, that, while some nominations are withdrawn, yet others will be rejected, and equally to the President's satisfaction, and that the ultimate recast of both the foreign and domestic services is likely to be satisfactory in all quarters.

A SHAMELESS FRAUD UPON THE EXECUTIVE.

Our statement of yesterday, that the nomination of Gen. A. L. RUSSELL, for the mission to Ecuador, was charged, in the State Department and at the White House, to the local account of Allegheny county, was made upon the highest authority. It was written with our eye at the moment resting upon the Washington telegrams which made the remarkable announcement. The facts, as stated, are not to be disputed.

The President has been misled in this business by the impudent deception of some man, or men, who knew better, but who presumed upon that personal confidence in their veracity which General GRANT had not yet learned to withhold from them. They have deceived him impudently—we repeat the word—but it is pleasant to feel that he has already been apprized of the truth, and that he will never, in the four years to come, look for even the shadow of truth or personal honor from the quarter which attempted to betray him.

A thousand nominations have been made within the past six weeks. The Executive has, of necessity, been forced to rely upon the representations of representative men from every section of the land. He must, in the same necessity, have been sometimes deceived. But he has, even already, shown to such unworthy and tricky politicians that he is not to be thus trifled with. He has recalled some nominations, and revoked some appointments for precisely that cause. Gen. GRANT never can forgive a man who betrays his confidence, and he is prompt to undo the unintended errors into which he may thus have been led.

The nomination in question has been withdrawn, at the special request of Gen. RUSSELL himself, who, we are bound to believe, himself discovered, yesterday for the first time, the superserviceable trickery of some of his own friends. That request was his own prompt protest against the trick. But that, we presume, will not be the end of the matter with the President. It is for his own sense of insulted and betrayed self-respect, personal as well as official, to decide upon the proper visitation upon the knavish perpetrators of this fraud upon him. Be they whom they may, we have misjudged U. S. GRANT, if, upon adequate proof, he does not reach them, promptly and effectively. But this is his affair, not ours. But we have a right, nay we feel it to be our duty, to ask, for the powerful majorities of his supporters in this Republican strong-hold, that the failure of the Administration thus far to recognize their claims in one solitary diplomatic, consular, or even high domestic selection for official trust, shall be reckoned for what it only can be—for our own lack of desert, or our lack of just consideration in the Executive Councils—and not that these should be ostensibly conceded, and then fobbed off with a bogus nomination, of a foreign candidate, impudently charged in this way to our local account. We print in another place the official expression of the Republicans of Allegheny, concerning this business.

This business of office-seeking is altogether of secondary consequence. But that is no reason why it should cover the scandalous fraud of which we write. We can do very well without offices, but we are not in the habit of being humbugged in this way, without a prompt and loud protest.

By whosesoever complicity the name of the nominee in question has been presented to the President as representing the claims of Allegheny Republicanism, it is incumbent upon each, and all, of them to explain and excuse himself, if he can. Let him answer this protest, and justify himself, to the President whom he has deceived. Our protest meets him at the White House. Let him respond to it there. The nominee for Ecuador has not been a citizen of Allegheny county for nine years, and his nomination on the score of such a citizenship is a fraud.

His own prompt withdrawal relieves General RUSSELL from any possible imputations upon his own good faith. But the other persons who have had access to the Executive ear, and who have abused their privilege by this impudent trick, still remain to be dealt with.

PRIMARY MEETINGS AND NOMINATIONS.

The proceedings of our Republican Executive Committee appear in another place. Very important action was taken, looking to the greatest harmony in the organization within this county, and with, practically, the unanimous concurrence of the Committee.

The primary meetings are called for the last Saturday (the 29th) of May, when each of the one hundred and seven election districts of the county will select two delegates to a Judicial Convention, two others to a Legislative Convention, and still two others to a County Convention. These three Conventions will sit on the same day and hour—Tuesday, June 1st—in separate halls, in this city, for the nomination of such portions of the county ticket, for October, as have been respectively assigned to them by the Committee.

The new system thus adopted has been recommended by a favorable experience in Philadelphia, where it has been found to obviate, with the aid of a reasonable degree of popular interest exhibited at the primary meetings, all of the objections which have generally proved fatal to the efficient usefulness of the old system. The distribution, by a single Convention, of the large number of offices usually to be filled and always so desirable to candidates, in counties like Philadelphia or Allegheny, has invariably been attended heretofore with bitter heart-burnings, jealousies, recriminations, and not seldom, by a degree of resulting dissatisfaction which has menaced the harmony of the party or the ballot-boxes. By the new mode, all log-rolling,—the corrupt traffic of candidates, and of their friends among the delegates, which has formerly parceled out the nominations, under irregular and secret combinations, and frequently with an utter disregard of the sincere preferences of a majority of its constituency—is effectively done away with. Judges can no longer be traded for the county executive offices, nor these be used as make-weights by aspirants for the Legislature. If log-rolling shall still exist, it must be confined within narrower limits and with a very considerable restriction of the resulting mischiefs. There can be no concert of action between the three Conventions—and there needs to be none. The tactics of one body cannot be transferred to or compensated in another. Each will be responsible only for its own results, and, in case of any subsequent dissatisfaction, this will be limited to one part of the ticket, and will not, as heretofore, weaken the whole array.

The Philadelphia system first adopted the partial division which our Committee now recognizes. Its advantages were so apparent that, in the interests of an absolute harmony, it was found expedient to advance still farther, and call separate conventions for each and every office to be filled. If our own experience shall warrant a similar progress, the Committee, which now moves with a wise caution in the path of reform, will in due time be prepared to inaugurate the fullest possible expression of the individual preferences of our Republican friends.

Three conventions, each of two delegates from each of our one hundred and seven districts, will call together in all three hundred and forty-two of the active working Republicans of the county. A correspondingly full attendance at the primary meetings will also be ensured. Each meeting must choose six delegates, two for each Convention. There is no danger in the largest possible call, in this way, upon the personal exertions of good Republicans. The more Conventions, the more delegates, the larger the turn-out at the primaries, and the more general will be the popular interest. Thus preferences will be more faithfully expressed, and a wider range within the party will feel and respond to the importance of the occasion. Thus, we get a better ticket, of the better qualified and more popular men, and the working heart of the party will be pledged, from the start, to its cordial support.

Now, let every Republican of Allegheny county remember the primary meetings of May 29th, attending them personally and having his own say in the choice of his favorite candidates. Do that, and October will manifest you unanimous satisfaction.

OUR CUBAN FILIBUSTERS.

The Cuban sympathies of our American filibusters have already found expression to a moderate extent. There seems to be reason for accepting the truth of the report that Gen. STEEDMAN, with some five hundred followers, has effected a landing on the Cuban coast. Whether other expeditions will follow him, and with equal success, will depend upon the vigilance and energy of our Government in the enforcement of our Neutrality-laws. The usual proclamation, for such cases, is not yet issued by the President; while the omission excites remark in diplomatic circles, it does not preclude the idea that all our laws are still to be faithfully administered.

In the meantime, while exaggerated reports of insurrectionary success are multiplied, by interested parties, through the American press, it is reliably learned, from the official reports of our civil and naval officers in Cuba and upon its coast, that the rebel movements are diminishing in importance, and that events in that Island everywhere point to a speedy termination of the present agitation—probably by some form of compromise which shall pacify the contending parties, in a more complete accordance with the political progress of Spain herself. In this view, it is possible that Gen. STEEDMAN may eventually find uncomfortable proofs of the adaptation of the Spanish garrote to an American neck. It was his own favorite doctrine, not many years ago, that unsuccessful rebellion leads justly and straight to the halter.

UNDERPAID LETTERS.—The attention of the new Postmaster General has been called to an erroneous construction placed by his predecessors upon the law of 1865, which provides that all letters deposited for mailing, paid only in part shall be forwarded to their destination charged with the unpaid rate, to be collected on delivery. The practice in the Postoffice Department has been to forward to its destination every letter bearing a three cent stamp, though the correct postage to be collected on delivery is six cents or even twenty-four cents. But if the letter bear only a two cent stamp, it is sent to the Dead Letter Office, though the correct postage is but three cents, or one cent additional.

MR. S. B. CHITTENDEN'S offer to present the Mercantile Library with $20,000 upon condition that the additional $30,000 should be raised by April 15 has been realized, the last dollar of that amount having been subscribed.

GOLD has been discovered on the Dry Fork of Cheat, below the mouth of Red Creek, in Tucker county, West Virginia, and at other places in the same county.

—Late Mazatlan (Lower California) advices state that the attempt of Colonel Palaccos to create a revolution at Sinaloa was a decided failure. After escaping from Mazatlan he proceeded immediately to Culinican, and succeeded in reducing the garrison. On entering the place and finding no money in the mint, he levied a contribution on the merchants of the city of $20,000, but succeeded in raising only sixteen hundred, and not being able to sustain himself he disappeared, and is believed to have gone to Lepie, relying on Losando for assistance. Before Palaccos left, he proclaimed in favor of General Placedo Vegas as Governor of Sinaloa. The proclamation created but little sympathy.

TRUSSES AND HERNIA.

The sad and deplorable condition of many who are afflicted with hernia or rupture of the bowels, calls loudly for some efficient and unmistakable remedy that will not only in every case give efficient relief, but in many cases effect a radical and thorough cure. These cases of hernia have become so frequent, that it is computed that one-sixth of the male population are said to be troubled, in some way or another, with this terrible ailment; and in very many cases do not know where to apply for an appropriate remedy, oftentimes not knowing whether an appliance is really needed or not; and if it should be needed, they often do not know where or to whom they should make application. The world is full of Trusses for the retention and cure of this lamentable evil, of times an incontestable proof of their total or inadequate fitness to relieve the sufferer. This need not be; Dr. Keyser, at his new medicine store, No. 167 Liberty street, is abundantly supplied with every appliance, needful to the retention and relief of this terrible affliction, so that every one can be properly fitted at a moderate cost, with the full assurance that the appliance is the best that the mechanical department of surgery can afford. The Doctor has pursued the investigation of hernia with more than ordinary care for over thirty years, so that the afflicted can place implicit reliance on his skill and integrity with the full assurance that they will not only get the best truss, suitable to the case, but likewise a thorough and efficient knowledge of its proper application.

There are many persons who not only sacrifice their health, but even their lives, for want of a proper truss, or a truss properly applied. Strangulated and irreducable rupture, is a far more common ailment now than in former years; and may we not justly arrive at the conclusion, that its frequency is often occasioned by the neglect and carelessness of the sufferers themselves. No one would be regarded as sane or excusable who would go for a whole winter without the proper clothing to shield them from the inclemency of the weather, but, at the same time, it is thought a light affair to suffer for years with a protrusion that not only subjects the person to inconvenience, but even places life itself in jeopardy. Those of our readers who may be unfortunate to need appliances of this kind cannot act more wisely than to cut this advertisement out and preserve it, so as to enable them to retain the place where such important preservers of life and health are to be procured.

THE PUREST AND SAFEST.

The efficacy of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS as a specific for recruiting the enfeebled body and cheering the desponding mind has passed into a proverb. In the United States where this marvelous tonic has borne down all opposition and eclipsed all rivalry, the demand for it has annually increased in a heavier and heavier ratio for years, until, at last, the regular sales of this preparation exceed those of all other stomachics combined. Eminent members of the medical profession and hospital surgeons without number, have candidly admitted that the pharmacopiae of the faculty contains no prescription that produces such beneficial effects in dyspepsia, general debility and nervous diseases, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. To use the language of a venerable physician of New York, "The Bitters are the purest stimulant and the safest tonic we have." But the uses of the great vegetable antidote are much more comprehensive than such praise would imply. As a PREPARATORY ANTIDOTE to epidemic disease, a genial stimulant, a promoter of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic, and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparation has ever attained the reputation of HOSTETER'S BITTERS. It is the HOUSEHOLD TONIC of the AMERICAN PEOPLE, and in all human probability will be so for centuries to come. The magnates of Science recognize its merits; and that it is emphatically the medicine of the masses, is proved by its vast and ever increasing sale

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, April 20, 1869.

Gold opened strong at 134¼, declined to 133¾ and again advanced to 134¼; closing with an advancing tendency.

Government bonds opened at a decline, sold from one-fourth to one-half per cent. lower and closed firmer, with an increased demand for all new bonds.

Stocks, after having sold at a decline of from one to two per cent, closed strong, with an increased demand for all first class stocks for shipment and home investment.

Money is easier and business is improving gradually.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 20, 1869.

Money was very easy at 7 per cent., though rather more active in the latter portion of the day, some delaying operations until a later hour than usual. The banks are receiving currency liberally from the interior and discounting freely to customers. Sterling firmer and advanced to 8¾ for 60 days, 8⅞ for sight. The demand is steadily increasing, both on account of May coupons and commercial operations. The imports are largely in excess of the imports, and the leading bankers find increased difficulties to cover their own bills with lower priced bills. Gold firmer, in sympathy with exchange; opened at 133¾, advanced to 134¼@134⅜, and closed at 134@134¼. The City of Antwerp brought £20,000. The loan market is easier. Rates for borrowing flat, 2 1-64@2 3-64 per cent., and for carrying 2@6 per cent., indicating short interest, has been closed up to some extent. Clearances at Gold Exchange Bank of $97,000,000.

Governments declined in the morning ⅛@¼ per cent. on the entire list, but recovered in the afternoon and closed very strong: Coupons of '81, 117⅛@117¼; do. '62, 120½@120¾; do. '64, 115⅞@116; do. '65, 117¾@118; do. new, 115¼@115¾; do. '67, 115@115½; do., '68, 115@115¼; 10-40s, 105¾@106; Pacific Sixes, 104⅝@104¾.

State bonds strong and active with Tennessee as a feature. Missouris, 82½; old Tennessees, 70@71, and new do., 68@68½; old North Carolinas, 61¼@61½, and new 53@53¼; old Virginias, 58@58⅛, and new 61@61½; Louisiana levee sixes, 70@71.

The stock market during the morning was barely steady, with average transactions, and in the afternoon become active and buoyant, with a general upward movement in the prices. Columbus, Chicago and Illinois Central rose from 45 to 47½; Illinois Central from 143 to 145; Harlem from 140½ to 142½; New York Central from 165½ to 166¼, and the improvement on the rest was from ¼ to ¾ per cent. Wabash has declared a dividend of 3½ per cent. on preferred stock, payable May 1st. Miscellaneous shares firm, with an advance in Pacific Mail to 94, and Mariposa preferred to 43. Express shares steady, though the announcement that the Narragassett and Long Island Steamship Company intended to express business tended to check speculation; the market closed strong.

5:30 prices, — Cumberland, 30@33c; Wells Express, 32⅛@33c; American Express, 40½@41c; Adams Express, 61½@62½c; United States Express, 65@65½; Merchants Union Express, 15@16; Quicksilver, 22½@22¾; Canton, 62½@62¾; Mariposa, 22½@23; preferred, 43@43¼; Hartford and Erie, 22½@24; New York Central, 166¼@166½; Erie, 34⅛@34¼; do preferred, 52@55; Harlem, 141½@141¾; Hudson, 148½@148¾; Reading, 95⅝@95¾; Chicago and Alton, 155@156½; preferred, 155½@158; Terre Haute, 40@40½; preferred, 68¼@69; Wabash, 72½@72¾; pref, 80⅝@80¾; St. Paul, 79⅞@80; preferred, 87@87¼; Fort Wayne, 32¼@32¾; Ohio and Mississippi, 33⅜@33⅝; Michigan Central, 128¼@130; Michigan Southern, 98¾@99; Illinois Central, 144@145; Pittsburgh, 93¼@93¾; Lake Shore, 98¾@99; Rock Island, 139¼@139⅝; Northwestern, 84⅛@84¼; do. preferred, 96¼@96½; C. PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, April 20, 1869.

There is really nothing new or important in the oil trade worthy of special notice. The market although firm is dull, with but little disposition manifested to either buy or sell, and we have but few sales to record. Compared with yesterday, prices have undergone no material change; the feeling seemed to be somewhat stronger in the early part of the day but in the afternoon, the market was very quiet.

CRUDE—The market is steady, with but little offering and apparently not much wanted. Sale 1,000 bbls (40 to 45) on spot at 15¼, and 500 (40 to 46) at 15. May and June seller, could have been sold at 16, and seller until July, may be quoted at 15@15¼. It was rumored that there was an offer out to buy 10,000 for May, seller, to be delivered on broad gauge cars at Oil City, at 6¼. It was thought subsequently, that this was put out as a feeler, by parties wanting to bolster the market, and it was reported that it was an offer to sell, instead of to buy.

REFINED—The sales reported to-day were as follows: 1,500 bbls April, at 32½; 500 each April to June, at 33½; 500 each May to July, at 34½. May and June is quoted at 34, while buyer all the year is nominal at 38¼@39. The shipments East, although still light, have increased somewhat within the past week or so. Quite a number of our refineries are reported idle.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The greatest sensation in the dry goods trade to-day is an injunction by Gardner, Brewer & Co. on Amoskeag prints for using their tickets for the last eleven years, consequently the mill has been stopped, and as both parties to the suit are wealthy it will take a long time to adjudicate the case. The market remains inert except for specialties. Heavy brown sheetings of the best Eastern makes are steady at 15½@16c for Stark A, Pacific, extra Atlantic A, Appleton A and Indian Head. Prints are steady at 12@12½c for American, Allen, Pacific and Sprague's, and 9½c for Wamsutta. 8½c for Adriatic. The latter Company exhibit one of the prettiest lines of cheap prints in the market, and they can readily be retailed in the interior at 10c. Low and medium styles of bleached goods are selling very low; the Constitutional A are jobbing at 11c, and Rock Dale and Auburn at 14½; both the latter brands comparatively cheap with Lonesdale and Masonville at 18@18½c. Williamsville at 21 with the discount, also very cheap; Wamsutta steady at 22½c, and York Mills at 27c. The market generally is depressed for all kinds of dry goods, particularly low and medium woolens. We have seen light mixed fancy Cassimeres sold as low as 65c per yard.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

England and America.

[From the London Times, April 6.]

It is stated on good authority that Mr. John Lothrop Motley is to be the Minister of the United States in England. The recall of Mr. Reverdy Johnson has long been looked upon as certain, not only because incoming Presidents generally use freely their power of making new appointments, but because he is, justly or otherwise, out of favor with the Republican party, and his chief work—the Convention with Great Britain on the Alabama claims—is looked upon as definitely set aside. Mr. Motley will come to a country which he knows, and where he is well known. He is no stranger in Europe, like many of the home-bred political men of the United States, who first form a real acquaintance with the Old World when they visit it in an official capacity. Mr. Motley's feelings toward England are, no doubt, those of most educated Americans. A man in whom the historical sentiment is strong, and a large part of whose life has been spent in investigating the past, can hardly fail to be in some sort well-disposed in the old country. This tendency is naturally strengthened by a knowledge of English society, and the remembrance of many cordial friendships. Mr. Motley's reputation as a distinguished man of letters, no less than his diplomatic position, will insure him a hearty welcome in this country; nor is there any type of Minister whom we would receive more gladly than the historian and the scholar. Mr. Motley, however, would be the first to admit that in him we must recognize one who has decided opinions on the matters in dispute between us and the Americans. Whatever may be his social or his historical prepossessions, he is, as far as actual politics are concerned, a thorough representative of the Northern Republicans. As the intentions of President Grant's Government are as yet a secret, even if any have been formed, it is useless to speculate upon the turn of affairs. The Convention which has been concluded between the two countries awaits the decision of the new President and of the Senate, which has not yet formally decided upon it. Supposing it to be set aside, and negotiations to be renewed at some future time, we may expect to find in Mr. Motley an earnest and uncompromising supporter of the opinions which are said to be dominant among his countrymen. In the matter of the Alabama claims, his principles and conduct are not likely to be alloyed by any weakness for us.

We have nothing to complain of in this, and are, indeed, disposed to prefer dealing with a nation through a Minister who represents its prevailing impulses. Such a man may be more harsh and exacting in a negotiation, but when the business is concluded there is at least the satisfaction that it is likely to prove a real settlement. In other respects Mr. Motley will probably prove a Minister of an order very unlike Mr. Reverdy Johnson. We shall lose a genial and indefatigable speechmaker, but shall gain, in exchange, a gentleman who will be understood on both sides of the ocean to say only what the great mass of his countrymen really means. The change is not of much importance to us, but, to judge from the feeling that has been manifested in America, the substitution of Mr. Motley for the present Minister is likely to soothe a large portion of the public which has been irritated by Mr. Reverdy Johnson's exuberant oratory. Strange to say, the speeches of Mr. Reverday Johnson, and the good understanding he has established with our various hospitable municipal authorities, have been resented by some Americans as if they involved some faulton our part. Nothing can be more unreasonable. Mr. Reverdy Johnson was appointed at a time when an important question was pending between the two nations, and he gave us to understand that he was specially chosen to settle it, Lord Russell and Mr. Adams had been too much engaged in the mutual complaints and recriminations of the war to approach the subject favorably. Lord Russell went out of office; Mr. Adams returned home; a new Foreign Secretary and a new American Minister had opportunities their predecessors had not enjoyed. This being the state of things, Reverdy Johnson took occasion, even before leaving America, to express the good will toward England which animated himself and with which he credited his own countrymen. On arriving in England he used the same language, and spoke in the name of the American people with a warmth which was naturally reciprocated by his audience. Of course, we are sorry to find that in so doing he mistook the feelings of his countrymen toward us; but that we should listen to what he said, and be gratified by it, is surely no fault of ours. The impressionable Minister naturally had, int his country of public dinners, numerous opportunities of repeating his friendly sentiments, and the ubiquitous reporter recorded them all, even the most improvised and spontaneous. Where we were amused the Americans were angry, and the result has been certainly unfortunate. Mr. Reverdy Johnson, however, notwithstanding his complimentary speeches, appears to have been active enough in his diplomatic work and to have fulfilled all the instructions of his Government. He concluded a Convention, in which everything the United States could reasonably demand was conceded by us—a Convention, indeed, that imposed on us possible liabilities which many thought we ought not to have accepted. Principally because of the unpopularity of the agent, this Convention has been ill received in the United States, and is now said to have been virtually rejected. It is plain that an United States Minister in this country may be too fair-spoken, and that for practical purposes it is better to deal with a more faithful though a less acceptable representative of American opinion.

(The concluding paragraphs of the Times' article were telegraphed for yesterday's GAZETTE. We copy, also, another paragraph from the Glasgow speech of Lord STANLEY.)

"I have very great faith in the good sense of the American people. I do not think that they can wish to increase their difficulties by getting into fresh quarrels. As for our part, it seemed to me plain and clear from the first, and it seems to me plain and clear now. There has never been any question upon our side of offering reparation for willful and intentional wrong, because we do not admit, and we have no right to admit, that any such wrong ever was committed by us. But what we have all along in substance said is this, that international law being vague, and many new points of international law having arisen in connection with the events of the late war, it was quite possible that upon either side, or upon both sides, in the absence of precedents to guide us, acts of unintentional wrong might have been done and that the question whether they had been or not was one which we were perfectly ready to refer to the judgment of any imperial arbiter. That is in substance the language we have held throughout, and whether it leads to an immediate settlement of the matters in dispute or not seems to me, although I may startle some persons by saying it—a matter of very secondary importance. Whatever happens in that respect, we have secured the main point. We shall have satisfied our own consciences, and we shall have put our country unmistakably in the right.

Washington Items.

President Grant's touchstone of fitness for a place, so far as politics are concerned, is that no man who has accepted office under Andrew Johnson for the last two years is a good Republican. This was among the things he told Senator Ross in the celebrated interview that individual lately had with him.

Despite the threatening ultimatum of Senator Sumner's speech on the Alabama treaty, there is well advised information that the President and Secretary of State take a much more conservative view, and do not intend to send Mr. Motley to London with a hurriedly considered proposition, but will give him only a general idea of the views of the administration now, which will be followed by details afterward.

The report sent hence of a contemplated extra session of Congress is evidently erroneous, and based on the merest rumors. Members of Congress, who have conversed with the President on the subject, say that he denies having any such intention. There is nothing likely to occur, he says, respecting the Cuban question that will disturb the peaceful relations which exist between this Government and Spain. The duty of the Administration concerning this subject is plain, and that is to observe a strict neutrality between the Spanish authorities and the insurgents. The Administration would not, if it could, restrain the sympathies of our people in behalf of the struggling insurgents against the Spanish. Due precaution has been taken to have the proper Government officials exercise due diligence to prevent armed expeditions or munitions of war leaving our ports to aid either the Spaniards or the insurgents.

The President has made a decided impression in two respects, from which hopeful anguries may be drawn for the future. He has done much for the country and the party, in removing the dead-lock on reconstruction, and he has laid a broad basis for the party in the character of some of his appointments. His recognition of the right of colored men to hold office, supplies the omission that was thought to seriously impair the vitality of the constitutional amendment on suffrage; and his appointment to office of ex-rebel officers, breaks the bounds of prejudice which have walled up the Republican Party, and adds to its strength and power.

Thus the President has sent to the Senate about one thousand nominations. This is a large business of the kind to be accomplished in so short a time, and under such a violent pressure, that to arrive at a correct conclusion has been in many cases exceedingly difficult, and in others utterly impossible. Hence some mistakes have been made. But take the whole list thus far appointed, and the verdict must be that it is good—in many respects excellent. Probably not more than from five to ten per cent. will turn out absolutely bad. The bad nominations are almost wholly among those whom the President has been pressed to appoint on political considerations. The President will promptly correct every mistake of this kind he may have made. Indeed, he has already begun this work, and has revoked, for cause, certain appointments made during the past week. One instance will show how promptly he acts. A certain gentleman was nominated for Consul at one of the ports on the Mediterranean. The day the name was sent to the Senate he got gloriously drunk in honor thereof. The next day his appointment was revoked. Another case was where a young man had been nominated for a certain position by a head of a Department, and the President finding, through an instance of which he was personally cognizant, that he was utterly characterless and untruthful, refused to approve the nomination.

The Rebel Pirate Alabama.

One of the crew of this freebooter is now on board the steamer Virginia, lying at East Boston. He says that the Deerhound was in fact a paid tender to the Alabama, that she had on board the chronometers and other valuables which had been stolen from American ships, (for the thieves were not permitted to land them at Cherbourg,) that a few days before the fight with the Kearsarge she brought fifty men from Portsmouth, (England,) trained gunners, who had received their training on the British practice-ship Excellent, to work the guns, and had entire control of them, for the officers know very little, if anything, of gunnery, and that he thinks the Alabama fired three shots to one fired by the Kearsarge.

The Alabama was somewhat quick in her rolling, and hence why the firing was so rapid. The gunners could not elevate or depress the guns with any degree of accuracy, therefore they trusted to luck to hull the Kearsarge, for their line firing was uniformly correct; but the shot generally passed over the Kearsarge or among her rigging without doing much damage. On the other hand, he says the firing of the Kearsarge was very true; every time a shot struck the Alabama it made her tremble fore and aft, and towards the close of the action crash upon crash tore her almost in two amidship, when she went down. She lost forty-seven men out of two hundred and twelve with which she began the action. He thinks her powder was bad, her officers were fools, and the Englishmen who worked the guns too self-conceited to imitate the cool deliberation of aim that prevailed on board the Kearsarge from first to last.—Boston Traveller, April 15.

THERE was recently a discovery made in Prussia of an immense deposit of native sulphate of potash, found at the depth of 800 feet in sinking a shaft to explore for rock salt. The bed is 160 feet deep, and appears to be almost inexhaustible. The mining is conducted on a large scale. Three years ago 125,000 tons were disposed of to the various factories, and is now found in the market in degrees of purity varying from 16 to 95 per cent. of pure potash salts.

Thrown Off.—Four of the cars of a freight train on the Panhandle Railroad were thrown off the track near the Union Depot, yesterday morning, by the displacement of a switch. Several hours were required in replacing them.

Assaulted his Brother.—J. R. Howe made information before Alderman Lynch yesterday against Peter Baugle, for assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges that Baugle attacked his younger brother and beat him without cause or provocation. Warrant issued.

K. O. M.—The Knights of Mystery having received an invitation from the manager of the American Theatre to attend the same this evening, they will assemble at the Rush House at 7½ o'clock, and proceed to the theatre in a body.

The Fair now in progress in the M. E. Church, Temperanceville, will be continued every evening until Saturday, April 24th. The proceeds will be used in remodeling the church. Friends of the church and all others who wish to help the cause are respectfully invited to attend.

To be Consolidated.—The Young Men's Bible Societies of Pittsburgh and Allegheny are to be consolidated, under the title of The Young Men's Bible Society of Alleghenv County. The consolidation will be effected at the next anniversary meetings of the Societies which will be held together.

Another Stable Entered.—John Boyd made information before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, alleging that Jas. Cobbs had broken into his stable, on Washington street, Monday night, and carried off a horse collar, bridle and reins, altogether valued at eight dollars. The accused was arrested and committed for a hearing.

Money Lost.—A young lady, while going along Market street yesterday morning, between Fourth avenue and Liberty street, lost an envelope containing seventy-five dollars. Any person finding the same will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at the office of Alderman Humbert, on Fourth avenue, near Market street.

Park Trespassers.—Several parties were brought before Mayor Drum, yesterday, charged with trespassing on the Allegheny Park by throwing ashes and dirt upon the grounds now enclosed. Three of the parties acknowledged to a violation of the ordinance known to them and paid three dollars fine. The others plead innocence of the law and were discharged.

Alleged False Pretence.—Casper Pollman alleges that John Gibson obtained on credit a horse of him valued at nineteen dollars, representing he was engaged in the coal business as partner with Mr. McFarland, in the Twelfth ward, which statement, it is said, was subsequently proved to be untrue. Alderman Taylor issued a warrant for the arrest of Gibson, on a charge of false pretence.

Malicious Mischief.—Yesterday afternoon, John McCaslin, a countryman, was arrested and fined five dollars by Mayor Drum for wilfully driving a waggon loaded with hay in such close proximity to one of the Troy Hill cars, that one of the windows of the car was broken. McCaslin was requested to turn off to one side by the driver of the car, but refused to do so and used abusive language to the driver, which explains the seeming severity of the fine.

Le nard S. Johns, Notary Public, Attorney at Law and Scrivener, has removed his office to No. 85 Fifth avenue, (opposite the GAZETTE office,) where, in addition to his usual practice, he will make a specialty of collecting accounts, rent rolls, ground rents and other claims of whatever character. For Esquire Johns, the old time Alderman, experienced, diligent and prompt in the discharge of every service confided to him, we bespeak a full share of the public patronage.

Almost Gone.—Monday afternoon a domestic employed with a family residing on Chatham street, was found lying in her room in a stupor, and near her a small vial containing laudanum. Medical aid was summoned and the usual remedies applied, which restored her to consciousness in a few hours. She stated she had been suffering great pain from a sore f ot and had taken the drug to render her less sensible to it, but mistaking the proper quantity, had became ill as stated. She stoutly denied any intention of committing suicide, of which suspicions had been entertained. She is recovering, and will probably be entirely well again in a few days.

"Minnehaha."

Tuesday night, about ten o'clock, one of the Allegheny night watch heard a cry for "police," coming from the direction of a house on Cedar avenue, above Ohio street, occupied by Mr. John Water. Proceeding to the place, the officer discovered Mr. Water, in one of the upper chambers of the dwelling, engaged in a severe altercation with his son, from whom the cry proceeded. Water, upon noticing the guardian of the law, locked all the doors of the house, thus preventing ingress, and then stationing himself at the window, laughed loudly, laughed derisively, and laughed defiantly at the official, who, thus finding himself laughed to scorn, withdrew. The next morning, possessing a warrant, and in company with several brother officials, he called again at the house, and succeeded in apprehending the laughing Water, who was taken before Mayor Drum and fined ten dollars for disorderly conduct. He paid the fine, but laughed no more,

COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Meeting of the Republican County Executive Committee—Interesting Proceedings—Three Conventions Decided Upon—Time of Holding Them—The Primary Meetings—A Protest—Resolution of Thanks, &c., &c.

The Republican County Executive Committee held a meeting at City Hall, Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock, Hon. Russell Errett, chairman, presiding, with Col. J. H. Stewart as Secretary.

The attendance was quite large, nearly every district in the County being represented. The President stated the object of the meeting, and announced the first business in order the fixing of a time for holding the Primary Meetings and the County Convention.

W. S. Purviance, Esq., offered a resolution providing for the assembling of three Conventions:

One to nominate Judges for the District and Common Pleas Courts, (one for each Court,) and elect Delegates to the State Convention, and to be known as the Judicial Convention.

One to nominate Senators and Representatives, and to be known as the Legislative Convention.

One to nominate the County Ticket, and to be known as the County Convention.

The Judicial Convention to meet at City Hall; the County Convention at the Court House; the Legislative Convention at the Academy of Music, (or such other place as the Chairman of the County Committee may designate) at ELEVEN O'CLOCK A. M., on the FIRST TUESDAY OF JUNE, 1869. Two delegates to be elected from each election district to each Convention. Election of delegates to be held on the LAST SATURDAY of MAY from 4 P. M. till 7 P. M.

Mr. Negley thought it ought to be also specified which Convention would nominate the County Committee.

Mr. Stewart offered an amendment that the County Convention nominate the County Executive Committee.

After some further discussion, Mr. Bayne offered a substitute for Mr. Purviance's resolution, providing for the holding of two Conventions, one a County and the other a Judicial, the County Convention to nominate all county officers except Senator and Representatives and Delegates to the State Convention, these to be nominated by the Judicial Convention.

Mr. Taylor moved, as an amendment, that the nominations for Clerk of Courts, Treasurer and Register be left to the Judicial Convention.

The amendment was not seconded.

Considerable discussion now ensued on Mr. Bayne's substitute.

Mr. Jennings finally, to settle the matter, moved to adopt the Crawford county system in nominating, and let the people vote direct for candidates.

The Chairman stated the matter had been discussed at a meeting of the Executive Committee last fall, and a change to the Crawford county system was voted down.

Several members of the usual districts opposed the motion of Mr. Jennings, and contended that it would be unfair to them, and that the County Committee had not the power to make the change. The amendment was finally withdrawn.

A vote was then taken on Mr. Bayne's substitute, which resulted in its rejection.

Mr. Taylor now pressed his amendment, that the nominations of Clerk of Courts, County Treasurer and Register be left with the Judicial Convention.

Mr. Batchelor was opposed to such reference. He could see no good reason for separating the nominations in such a manner.

Mr. Moreland thought it would only clog the Convention with business in which it properly had no authority.

The amendment elicited still further discussion, the members generally apparently being opposed to such discrimination. It was finally withdrawn.

The question then recurred on the original resolution, as offered by Mr. Purviance, which was adopted.

Mr. Negley moved that the Chairmen of the three Conventions be empowered to appoint a committee of three from each Convention to choose a County Executive Committee. Carried.

Mr. Schoyer offered a resolution relative to the appointment of A. L. Russell to a foreign mission, protesting against the same being charged to Allegheny county, inasmuch as Mr. Russell has not been a resident of the county for nine years past, and never had been except for a short time. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. McKee offered a resolution authorizing the holding of the primary meetings throughout the county between the hours of four and seven P. M. Carried.

Mr. Bayne presented the following:

WHEREAS, The Hon. Russell Errett has resigned his position as State Senator, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the thanks of the people of Allegheny county are due to him for the manly, honest and faithful course pursued by him as a Senator, and this Committee deems it but just to give this expression of its opinion.

Mr. Moreland suggested that the name of Hon. Jas. L. Graham should be added to the resolution.

Mr. Bayne explained that while he, as much as any member of the Committee, honored and admired Mr. Graham for his course as a public officer, yet he thought it would be unnecessary to add his name to the present resolution, inasmuch as he was still a Senator. As Mr. Errett had resigned the position, and as he had been wantonly assailed by some of the public prints, it was no more than just that the Republicans of Allegheny county, who had sent him to Harrisburg as their representative, should give expression to their opinions respecting the manner in which he had discharged his duty. Were Mr. Graham in a similar position, he would as readily offer a similar resolution.

Messrs. Purviance, McKee, Dilworth and a number of others coincided with the remarks of Mr. Bayne, after which Mr. Moreland withdrew his amendment.

The question on the passage of the resolution was then put by the Secretary, which resulted in its unanimous passage.

Mr. Errett briefly returned his thanks to the Committee for their kind and hearty endorsement of his course, after which, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

Allegheny Temperance League.

The Allegheny Temperance League held a regular meeting last evening in Rev. J. B. Clark's Church, corner of Sandusky street and Stockton avenue.

In the absence of the President, Mr. David Blair presided.

The proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Collins.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved, following which Prof. J. H. Crumb delivered an address, earnestly and ably advocating total prohibition.

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed delegates to the Temperance Convention to be held in Monongahela City, commencing Tuesday, April 27th, 1869: Revs. A. K. Bell, E. E. Swift, Rev. J. J. McIlyar, Rev. Edward Gray, T. J. Hoskinson, A. McMillan, E. B. Collins, and Messrs. Isaac Charles and G. W. Bradley.

WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON COLLEGE.

Special Meeting of the Trustees—Resignation of Dr. Edwards, President of the Institution—Location of the College.

Our readers generally are aware of the fact of the consolidation of Washington College at Washington, and Jefferson College at Canonsburg, under the name of Washington and Jefferson College, which took place some three years since. For a number of years past it was evident that the two institutions, as they were under the control of the same church and located in such close proximity to each other, could not be sustained, and that one or the other must be abandoned, or else the two consolidated in order to save them.

The consolidation had been in contemplation for some time, when Rev. Dr. Beatty made a donation of $50,000 to the institutions on condition that they should consolidate and be conducted under one faculty, which was too great a prize to be lost, and the consolidation was made, conditional that a part of the institution should be kept at each place, as follows: The three high classes at Canonsburg and the preparatory and scientific departments at Washington. Under this arrangement the new institution went into operation, but the trustees soon discovered that a mistake had been made, and it could only be corrected by making the union full and complete by establishing the entire institution at one place. The question then arose, "at what point shall it be?" and that question has been agitating not only the minds of the trustees, but of the Alumni and the citizens of the different places as well, and for the purpose of settling this vexed question several meetings have been held, but no conclusion arrived at.

A special meeting was called and the Trustees, to the number of twenty-six, assembled at the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church, on Wood street, yesterday. Before taking up the special business for which the meeting was called, Dr. Edwards, President of the institution, tendered his resignation, which was accepted. The matter of the location of the College was then taken up and thoroughly discussed, and at the close of the afternoon session the vote stood, sixteen for Washington and ten for Canonsburg, but as it requires a two-thirds vote to select the location there was no choice.

An evening session was held, and at ten o'clock no change had occurred, the vote standing sixteen to ten as at the previous session.

If the Trustees fail to agree we believe the matter is to be submitted to a Commission, when it is probable the College will be removed to some other county.

Brutal Treatment of a Child.

Amon Dolan, a girl about eighteen years of age, made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging her father and mother, Patrick and Mary Dolan, with aggravated assault and battery. The parties reside in the Twelfth ward, in a court off Penn street, opposite the skating park, and it appears from reports that their treatment of the child has been of a most brutal and inhuman character, and that they abused her to such an extent that the neighbors interfered in the matter and brought the girl to the Mayor's office, where she was prevailed upon to make the information. She alleges that her father beat her over the head with the heel of his boot, inflicting severe and painful wounds, and on another occasion struck her on the arm with an iron poker, and that her brother had caught her by the hair of the head and dragged her a considerable distance. About a year since a similar information was made against these parties by the daughter before Mayor Blackmore, but the matter was settled upon their promising to treat the girl properly. The girl alleges that since that time they have abused her more than formerly, and the neighbors corroborate her statement. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the father and mother, and a hearing will take place this morning at ten o'clock, when the facts will be made known. If the statement of the girl be true, it is one of the most diabolical cases of inhumanity on record, and the perpetrators of the alleged outrages should be punished to the fullest extent of the law.

Wanted Change.

Monday night Hugh McLean stopped at the grocery store of George Hoffman, in Mifflin township, and made a purchase, receiving in "change" four dollars and twenty-five cents. He was somewhat under the influence of liquor at the time, but seemed to be sufficiently sensible to understand what he was about. Yesterday morning the inmates of Mr. Hoffman's family were aroused about four o'clock by a vigorous and continued knocking at the front door. Investigating, they discovered McLean outside, and insisting upon admission, which being granted, led him to further demand his "change." Notwithstanding all the averments of Mr. Hoffman and his wife, he maintained he had received none the evening before, and at length becoming enraged, attacked and abused them in a shameful manner, winding up by threatening to take their lives the first opportunity. This is the substance of a statement, (of the truth of which we know nothing,) made before Alderman McMasters yesterday and upon which informations for assault and battery and surety of the peace were made against McLean by Hoffman, and upon which a warrant was issued.

Arrested on Suspicion.

Yesterday afternoon officers Moon and Ruch arrested William J. Welsh in a house on Sixth street, on suspicion that he was a professional thief. After making the arrest, however, they discovered that they had arrested an old offender, against whom an information was made before Mayor Blackmore nearly a year since, charging him with feionious assault and battery. In searching his pockets, a notice of that fact, which had been clipped from one of the city papers, was found in his pocket book. He admitted that he was the man against whom the information was made, and said he had left the city at the time to avoid being arrested, and had only returned a few days since. He also stated that he came here from Wellsville, where he had broken out of the lock-up. The Wellsville authorities have been notified of his arrest, and if they want him he will be turned over, otherwise he will be committed for trial on the old charge of felonious assault and battery.

Horse Stealing.

Some time Sunday night the stable of Mr. Rudolp Everts, in Richland township, was entered and robbed of a horse, wagon, lot of harness and other gears. From various circumstances Mr. Everts was led to suspect Gustavus Bordach of the theft, and accordingly lodged information to that effect before Justice Austen Monday afternoon. Yesterday morning Bordach was arrested, and, after a nearing, in default of bail committed for trial on a charge of larceny.

A Fifth Avenue Attraction.

Mr. Finn Mains has clearly demonstrated that desirable goods at cheap prices must attract business to any section of the city. His present location has been tried by several merchants, but they failed to draw to themselves a fair share of trade, and it remained for Mr. Mains to prove that location is nothing, provided the advantages offered to customers cannot be surpassed by contemporary houses anywhere else in the city. At 105 Fifth Avenue, he has but recently opened one of the largest and finest assortments of hats and caps ever brought to the city, and marked down his prices so low as to create a perfect furore in the market, and to occasion such a rush to his store room as has seldom, or never been equalled. His stock is so varied and complete, and his prices so low, that it astonishes the old dealers to know how he can manage to successfully transact the large and constantly increasing trade directed towards him. We were present a day or two ago, at his tastefully arranged salesrooms, and after a whole multitude of customers had been satisfactorily supplied, ventured to inquire how it was that such a large line of trade had been secured at the very start of business in a new quarter. Our response was that people were always willing to patronize places where their best interests are conserved, and Fin Mains' acknowledging that fact, had opened a full stock of the best goods in the market, at prices so low as to preclude the idea of his securing any large profit on his sales. Our readers are strongly recommended to favor this establishment with a purchasing visit, as nowhere else can they make a better selection, and certainly nowhere else can they find lower prices prevailing. Mr. Mains is content to sell at small profits and thus secure a corresponding large trade, and the immense popularity which his new Fifth avenue store has obtained is the best evidence of the golden success he is destined to obtain under his generous system of business.

A First Class Establishment.

Messrs. Hoffman & Hale, No. 60 Fifth avenue, under the Opera House, have secured one of the finest rooms in the city for their musical establishment and filled it with a large and varied stock of Pianos, Organs, Melodeons and musical goods generally, in the sale of which they are now prepared to compete with any other house of good reputation in the vicinity. The firm are agents for some of the standard pianos of the times and warrant every instrument to be fully equal to representations. In the line of organs and melodeons they are especially well supplied, and the visitor can have no difficulty in making a selection, provided a first class instrument is wanted. In smaller articles, such as violins, accordeons, guitars, &c., they have a complete assortment, all sizes, and all prices to suit the tastes and pockets of all purchasers. They have also on hand a large collection of sheet music, embracing the most popular publications of the day. In short, everything usually kept in a first class music store may be found at their establishment, a fact which purchasers would do well to remember in distributing their patronage.

A Sneaking Transaction.

Yesterday a couple of young men, about eighteen years of age, entered a beer saloon in the Sixth ward, Allegheny, and called for liquor. The wife of the proprietor of the saloon who was behind the bar at the time, refused to furnish them with the article, when they became very abusive and used exceedingly vile language toward her. The proprietor of the saloon at this instant stepped in, and being made acquainted with the affair compelled the youths to apologize. After they retired from the place, determined on revenge, they hurled two or three large stones through the glass window of the establishment. A policeman in the vicinity noticing the action, at once attempted to arrest the parties, but secured only one, who gave his name as John Snee. It should have been sneak in this case. Last evening he was fined ten dollars and costs by Mayor Drum.

Indecent Exposure.

W. B. Gallagher, a young man claiming to reside in this city, was arrested by officer Martin Schafer, yesterday, in the Sixth ward, Allegheny, for publicly exposing his person. It subsequently appeared the fellow had been carrying on the same practice in the Eighth ward. He had a bottle of whiskey in his pocket at the time, which is somewhat explanatory of his conduct. He carried several letters, all commendatory of his character, especially his morals, but unfortunately actions speak louder than words. He was locked up for a hearing this morning.

Resulted Fatally—Coroner's Inquest.

A few days since we published an account of an affray, in the Twelfth ward, between John Powers and his brother-in-law, John Magee, which occurred on Monday evening, the 12th inst. At the time of the occurrence no serious results were anticipated, but it has since proved to be a very serious matter, as it resulted in the death of Magee. It appears that Magee came to the house of his brother-in-law, Powers, where his wife was staying, and demanded admittance. Powers refused to open the door and ordered him away, knowing that he was drunk and would probably create a disturbance if admitted. Magee then broke the door open and in doing so fell and broke two of his ribs. As soon as he gained admittance he made an attack upon Powers, who, in looking for something with which to defend himself, got hold of a hatchet, and as Magee advanced toward him struck him a blow on the head, causing a slight fracture of the skull. Powers at once delivered himself up to the authorities and was placed in the lock-up, but as no information was made against him, and the injured man it was thought would recover, he was released. Magee remained at the house of his brother-in-law, where he was properly provided with medical attendance, and on Monday night about twelve o'clock expired. Yesterday morning Powers was arrested by officers Cupples and Dressler and taken to the lock-up to await the result of the Coroner's investigation.

The Coroner was notified of the affair and held an inquest on the body, when the following testimony was adduced:

Dr. A. C. Murdock, sworn—I was called to see deceased the 13th inst.; found the man laboring under inflammation of the lungs. He did not complain of pain in his head; said it was from several cuts that he had got on it, but that they would not amount to much; but said for God's sake to remove the pain in his side. I asked him how this happened. He replied that he had been drunk for a day or two, and broke open the door and fell and hurt his side. He wanted to whip his brother-in-law for not letting him in, and did not blame him for anything he done.

The cause of his death was from internal injuries received at the time of dissipation previously.

Mrs. Eliza Magee, sworn—I am the wife of deceased; know nothing of the matter further than when I came down stairs I found my husband lying on the door, which he had broken in; he told me that it was all his own fault.

The jury after a short deliberation, returned the following

VERDICT:

The deceased, John Magee, came to his death from congestion of the lungs and brain, produced by injuries received by a fall while in a state of intoxication, on the 12th of April, 1869, in the Twelfth ward, city of Pittsburgh.

The Mayor, on being notified of the result of the inquest, discharged Powers.
